

Receives ongoing support to participate in practice learning of students

Has current knowledge and experience in the area they are working in

Supports and supervises students

Provides feedback on the students progress

Contribute to students assessments to inform decisions for progression

Any registered health and social care professional can supervise nursing student

Role model for safe and effective practice in line with their code of conduct

Support learning in line with their scope of practice

Enables students to meet proficiencies and programme outcomes

